

TOMBSTONE PROSPECTOR

JANUARY - - - 18, 1889

LOCAL NOTES.

At the Pony, Clam Juice. Try it. The snow is ten inches deep in Prescott.

Four drummers came in on the coach to-day.

Ex-Justice Shearer is in Phoenix on his way to Prescott.

Governor Zuleck owns three hundred acres of Alfalfa land in Maricopa county.

Sheriff Slaughter returned from Sonora yesterday. He bouded a valuable mining property while there.

Miss Clara Foltz, the lady lawyer of San Francisco, is in Tucson. Hope she will conclude to settle in Arizona.

As evidence of prosperous times it might be mentioned that a game of quoits was the attraction on Allen street to-day.

Ben Baron has disposed of his house and lots on the Charleston road to Dave Thomas for a consideration of $350.

Sam McClaren accompanied by a deputy sheriff went down to Fairbank this morning to look after some business affairs.

G. G. Berry has appealed the case of his agent Ward Priest on a note of $100. A decision was rendered against the plaintiff in the justice's court.

D. A. Bennett, of Michigan, has sued Bob Cronch for $380, claimed to be due him on the sale of a team of horses and a wagon.

T. W. Harris was joined in bonds of matrimony to Miss Annie Burnes by the Rev. John Knox last evening in this city.

T. J. White, representing H. J. Sandler, of San Francisco, has commenced suit against Stock Sandler and D. J. Rankin for $268 claimed to be due him.

Mrs. E. O. McClure breathed her last at Fairbank yesterday. The husband of the deceased has the heartfelt sympathy of the community in the hours of his terrible grief.

The school house at Springville burned down on the night of the 9th inst. The fire is supposed to have originated from a wooden box in which the ashes from the stove were thrown.

Wilson Koen, the professional tramp, was fined $5 and costs in the Recorder's Court this afternoon, and left town. It has been ascertained that he has a pal, a strong robust man, who acts as the old man's banker.

Horace Mann, the proprietor of the Mansion House at Bisbee has leased the same to Louis Vidal for a term of one year at a monthly rental of $225 per month. This is considered the finest property in the Copper Camp, and is elegantly fitted up.

Three of the parties engaged in the killing in Graham county have been arrested, and bound over to appear before the grand jury, and are in jail. There are four more men to be apprehended. Those under arrest are Mexicans.

We are under obligations to Allen C. Mason, of Tacoma, for a book descriptive of Puget Sound and vicinity. Beside being a work of art it is filled with valuable information regarding the northwestern country. If you desire to learn anything of that rapidly growing country write to him.

The Daily Report of San Francisco says that it has reliable information that the greatly advertised Harqua Hala bonanza is a fraud. In this connection it warns the people of Cincinnati against a swindle that is being prepared for them under the name of San Maguil Gold Mining Co. of Lower California.

The normal school at Tempe is reported by Hon. C. M. Straus, who was there this week to be in a flourishing condition. Many improvements are being made; new out-houses have been erected, and the building repainted. The grounds are also being beautified and 100 young trees have been ordered. The attendance is about the same as last year, averaging about twenty students.

A Hard Country.

From Sheriff Slaughter, who returned from Sonora, the Prospector learns that the country never looked so utterly destitute as it does at present. He stopped in Hermosilla and Magdalena and pronounced the outlook for the near future to be not very flattering. The cause of the hard times, he says, is due to the low prices ruling for grain of all kinds and the impossibility of the producers to realize anything for their crops. Flour is selling for $8.75 per cask, which is 300 pounds, and wheat is hard to get rid of at 75 cents per hundred pounds. Flour one year ago was worth $18 per cask of 300 pounds, or $9 per hundred, and the present price ruling of $2.50 per hundred is certainly a wonderful drop. The cause, Mr. Slaughter was informed, was due to a still more remarkable fact, and one which is hard to understand unless it is an immense scheme to corner the Sonora wheat market. A French house doing business in all of the large cities of Sonora, backed by unlimited capital, has shipped into the country 3,000,000 pounds of California flour which has been put on the market at a very low price and being of a superior quality has taken the place of the domestic article and forced the holders of the local supply to sell at any figure they are able to get.

The most startling part of the immense deal as told to Mr. Slaughter and which is vouched for by the people with whom he talked, is the open assertion that the firm paid the government $25,000 to admit the flour, and about a half million dollars worth of sugar, without the formality of exact duty.

It is asserted that this amount of money was given as a bribe, and that the duty on it had been collected would have been over a half million dollars.

G. A. R.

The second annual encampment of the Department of Arizona, Grand Army of the Republic completed the business before it to-day at 1 o'clock, says the Tucson Citizen. Everything was harmonious and the best of feeling prevailed throughout the entire session.

Despite the muddy streets they were out early this morning. The contest between Geo. L. Coats, of Phoenix, and A. B. Sampson, of Tucson, was being energetically carried on in a spirit of friendship by the friends of each. Neither of these gentlemen were making any effort to secure the position, leaving the matter entirely with their friends. The contest was very close and resulted in the election of Mr. Sampson by one vote.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: A. B. Sampson of Tucson Department Commander; J. C. Creamer, of Phoenix, senior vice-commander; J. L. Guthrie, chaplain; J. E. Wharton, medical director; J. H. Campbell, A. B. Lighthizer, Mr. Gregory, Geo. Haxworth, and A. E. Love, commission of administration; John M. Jones, delegate to the national encampment, and J. M. Ward as alternate.

Tombstone was selected as the place for the next annual encampment of the department on the first Monday in March, 1890.

A Room for Pinal County.

The "Bonanza Company" has secured the control of the Silver King mine, and, although all the old officers were re-elected, Mr. W. S. Lyle has been made the general manager, and will exercise the exclusive control of the property. This company will work the property to make money, and if it cannot be made out of the mine it will be made out of the stock. It is also rumored that it is negotiating for the Reymert group of mines at De Noon, and if successful it will erect very extensive works on the Gila river and construct a railroad from the mines to the mill, and inaugurate a grand system of development that will sustain large towns both at the mines and the mill. It now looks as though a lively impetus will be given to mining matters in Pinal county that will prove to be beneficial to the country and its people.—Enterprise.

NELSON MOON.

A Professional Beggar, and How he Worked the Racket.

Last night about eight o'clock an old man with one arm was arrested by Chief Gage for vagrancy. He had the appearance of being a tramp of the lowest order. His pants came down just below his knees, revealing between the lower extremities of either leg, and a pair of number thirteen shoes, a sun-burnt section of very thin skin. He wore a coat of very thin coarse material lined on the inside with leather; on either side was a pocket, while the space between the lining and outside of the coat was not intersected by seams or other obstacles.

On Wednesday morning the wearer of the coat went to Chief Gage's house and walking into the door said, "Mrs. Gage, I want a dollar." The lady referred him to her husband, whom she said could be found on Allen street. He remarked that he did not want to see him and went away.

Meeting a woman shortly afterward he struck her for a dollar and on her replying that she had nothing but a bill he replied that he could change it. He plied his vocation, going from house to house and picking up what he could until yesterday evening, when he was run into the city jail. His coat was searched and the contents of it would have started an enterprising man in the Yankee notion business had he possessed it. A five-gallon bucket was brought in and the contents of the wonderful coat completely filled it. Spoils of thread, two bottles of ink, one of machine oil, two corkcorks, one tack hammer, three penholders, six pencils, two pocket-books, three combs, one package of hot nails, blank books, written full of unintelligible notes, a Hibernia bank book showing a credit to his account, a paper showing his title to 100 acres of land near Roseburg, Oregon, together with pins, needles, etc., and last, but not least, two sacks of silver amounting to $55. Nelson was locked up for the night and this morning was let out to find an attorney to defend him against the mighty arm of the law, which he maintained was rotten to the core. He had traveled through Mexico and said he was on his way to Oregon to visit his daughter.

An Interesting Case.

A great fuss has been stirred up by the board of supervisors of Apache county by the election of one of the newly-elected members to the chairmanship of the board. The hold-over member of the board maintains that he is by virtue of his office chairman of the body, but the other two members thought differently and elected one Hlasingum chairman. The validity of the warrants signed by the new chairman are to be tested and the result will be watched with interest by those who are interested in county affairs in this county, where a similar proceeding was gone through with, but which excited no comment.

How They Appear.

The Star will wager that the Grand Army encampment, now assembled in Tucson, is made up of the handsomest lot of gentlemen ever assembled together in Arizona. They would look splendid on dress parade, and they have good stuff in them as well. Captain Creamer, of Phoenix, is admitted to be the handsomest man of the encampment. Col. Zabreskie the smartest, and A. L. Grow the most sedate. But they are all courtesies and stick together like burdocks in a bell weather's fleece.

Lucky Numbers.

The following are the first eleven numbers drawing prizes in the Louisiana Lottery, Jan 15:

5882, 78535, 20465, 24563, 47032, 62657, 83143, 40789, 94127, 20788, 66257.

The following numbers drew $1,000 each: 40,947, 74,950, 40,154, 62,948, 79,237, 61,409, 98,955, 79,417, 21,734, 99,636, 29,386, 36,968, 2,587, 96,060, 64,123, 74,598, 35,936, 62,369, 86,943, 28,578, 74,882, 81,246, 85,573, 36,941.

The Palace Hotel is now better than ever prepared to accommodate the public. The only two-story hotel in the city. First class in every respect and furnished throughout in elegant shape. Tenth and Fifth street. Visitors to Tombstone should ask to be left at the Palace.

12-22d MRS. BARTON, Proprietress.

What They Did.

The Tucson Citizen published during the meeting of the G. A. R. in that city the personnel of some of the delegates, among them the following members from Tombstone:

A. L. Grow when the war broke out was a first-class fireman on the U. S. frigate Niagara and had shipped for the purpose of escorting the first embassy to Japan from this country. When he returned war had been declared and he remained in the service, going to the Gulf in 1862; continued in the navy throughout the war; after the war came to the Pacific Coast and was mustered out in 1868; came to Arizona in 1875.

J. H. Campbell was first in the navy on the steam frigate Columbus and afterwards on the gunboat Albatross; afterwards in the Thirtieth Regiment of Veteran Reserve Corps; mustered out December, 1865; came to Arizona in 1880.

J. W. Kelso enlisted in 1862 in the Second Colorado Volunteers; was in Missouri and Arkansas chasing bushwhackers mostly; then went to the plains and was discharged in 1865; came to Arizona in 1879.

STOLEN GOODS.

Eskimos are naming their children after "By Thunder," "Go to Hell," and other expressions used by English sailors.

"Society" in New York is composed of only 400 people, and Chauncey Depew isn't one of them. He is probably very glad of it, or ought to be.

A Buffalo paper says if there is any annexation feeling in Windsor it has been induced by Detroit money. Buffalo papers sometimes hit the nail on the head.

The London Standard says that millions of dollars have been spent on the heathens of China by European missions, and it doubts if $100 benefit has thus far come from it.

An English joker took down the calendar in a business office and hung upon one two years old. Dates for important papers were taken from it and a loss of $50,000 was the result.

The latest estimate of the coal supply of the world gives us fuel for the next 800 years, by which time some genius will have invented a way to make one corn-cob heat a big house for a week.

The Courier-Journal says that Elmer is probably not aware that one of the streets of Louisville bears his name, and that no American or other hogs are allowed to run on that thoroughfare.

In a lately published story book for boys the author has a boy 13 years old capture three burglars, save four persons from drowning, discover and put out a fire, save a city from inundation and find $50,000 in an alley.

A Colorado paper learns that a letter of Guiteau, the assassin, has written a novel entitled "The Stalwarts, or Who Was to Blame?" We don't know; but imagine it is the people who consented to publish her book.

"Is Love a Failure?" How on earth any man who has ever strained the object of his affections to his heart and printed a kiss on the end of her nose can ask that question is a stunner. One might as well ask if eating was a failure.

Farmer Johnson, of Ohio, was looking for a visit from White Caps, and when tramp Smith knocked at the door at midnight 100 bird shot went whizzing into his system and beyond. He may live but he will be more cautious in the future.

As to executing criminals by electricity a New York paper observes: "While the originators of the ridiculous new capital punishment law are figuring on some method of carrying it out the legislature can afford desirable relief by repealing the law."

Two hours after Edward Spencer, of Chicago, had married Nellie Hopper he asked her if she liked lobsters. She said she didn't, and they had a discussion which resulted in blows and a separation. Nellie should have liked even a whale to please her newly-made husband.

Henry Jackson applied to the warden of Joliet prison the other day to be taken in for five years and when the warden refused his request he went to a lawyer to see about getting a mandamus to compel him to. He says he stole a horse twenty-five years ago and is entitled to a term in prison.

Fervid Eloquence.

Press me closer, all my own.
Warns my heart for thee alone.
Every nerve responsive thrills.
Each a new my life fills;
Rest and peace in vain I crave,
In ecstasy I live, thy slave;
Drover'd with hope, with promise blest:
Thou dost reign upon my breast;
Closer still, for I am thine.
Burns thy heart for thou art mine;
Thou the message, I the wire,
I the furnace, thou the fire;
I the servant, thou the master—
Roaring, red-hot, mustard plaster.

More Trouble.

More trouble is brewing between the cattle and sheep men in Apache county. On Tuesday last a cowboy dressed and painted like an Indian, and after many threats of disloyalty made a descent upon some Mexican herders in the employ of Don Pedro Montana, killing five and wounding one. One cowboy named Pedro Chandelario was killed. The wounded Mexican is being packed in on horseback Pedro Montana with an armed force has gone to the rescue and protection of his herds and herders.

Joseph Goldwater has purchased the large warehouse belonging to L. Zechendorf & Co. at Benson.
